THE SECOND WELL TRUST presents 'David's Message from Peru'
A Teaching from Songee, mid 1992

This teaching is published in 'The Facets of the Diamond'.

A person from Spirit came in to give David a message about a past life in Peru. Could you explain it more clearly please, Songee.

Songee: What was the basis of the message between the one that was coming to you? It was not the connection between the one in the past life, there was a message for that one that was coming for him at that time. Something of the connection of the life at the time... I put it badly.

There was in that life... There were lessons from that life that needs to be used in this life now. The one from that life was trying to tell of the lesson that was of need to be put to use in this life now.

Was he a leader at that time?

Songee: It is not important of what he was. It is the message that is, that something you did in that life whatever capacity he was in, he needs to employ that now in this life.

What did he do as a leader of men? What was the role he played in that life as a leader of men. In this life he is living now, how much following of men has he been doing? Perhaps the message for him to come is, to stop being a follower of men and become a leader of men again. To use the Power that he gathered in that life as leader, to employ it in this life now.

BE MORE DECISIVE.

It is important not to take one of the connection that you think it is, but to search through it and find the message that is there. It is not important what life you have lived before, what is important is what lesson you have learned in that life that you can use in this life, to help you advance now in this life.

That life has gone its finished, you have your lessons from that life some you learn some you do not. Some that you learned can be used now in this life. It is part of the Power that you have gathered to date.

Now we are getting somewhere, now we are making sense out of it.
