THE SECOND WELL TRUST presents 'A Bush Walk'
A Teaching from Songee, late 1994

This teaching is published in 'The Facets of the Diamond'.

When I was walking in the bush I had the sensation that the chakra at the top of my head began to move very fast. Can you explain the reason for this please?

Songee: That which occurred for you. You need to look at where you were walking, the path that you were walking on. Some paths of nature have a very strong energy. The Power from there will resonate with your own and then the chakras will open.

That place is for you, a special place for you to walk or if you are to sit to do healing.

It is a public park and a public walkway.

Songee: That does not matter, you can do the healing as you walk back and forward there, it does not matter if there are other people there. They might think you strange for walking back and forward on the same place. It is giving you the Power to do the work. You will be surprised at the number of people who comes to the spot once the energy is activated.

It is as the old days that in the woods when the people of the forests would say their many rituals to Me. The people of the Hood would gather to be among the big oak trees.

Those places that they would gather at were places of great Power that they used and the more that they were used the stronger the Power would become. The more active it would become and more possible it was for them to communicate with nature, and communicate with myself and others. That is the nature of those places. It is not the only one there are other places but this one is close one to you and for you.

A little boy was killed there a few years ago. What would be the effect of that?

Songee: That has nothing to do with that place. The Power of that place was there before that time. It was not responsible for that killing, it was not done at that place, it was done at another place and then removed to that place.

That place is a place of healing and goodness of Light, the Soul would have gone on from there with a lot of peace. The one who did the deed did not know that. The one who guarded the child would know and see that the physical remains are taken there for the healing of the Soul.

It did not happen there but close by. Those who have been working finding the information found what they wanted to find, it suited them.
